Former IBM Partner Enablement Executive- Patrick Corcoran Joins Global Software, Inc. As Enterprise Alliance Manager

RALEIGH, NC USA (23rd May, 2016) — Global Software, Inc. the leading provider of Microsoft Excel-based automation & reporting software solutions to enhance the world's foremost Business Intelligence (BI), Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) and operational platforms, announces today that Patrick Corcoran has joined the Global Software, Inc. team as Enterprise Alliance Manager, to promote its automation road map strategy for Microsoft® Excel.

Patrick Corcoran will cultivate relationships with various strategic ERP partners, aiding in their strategy to effectively deliver the market leading Excel based automation and reporting platform to their respective customers. "Patrick's arrival at Global Software, Inc. to spearhead our Partner Alliance campaign around our flagship Spreadsheet Server application is both timely and exciting, said Tonya Cannady, Vice President, Global Sales for Global Software, Inc. "Patrick has a superb pedigree and significant accomplishments over the past 8 years in the OEM reporting software space. He understands our value proposition and how best to position Spreadsheet Server at the various ERP companies around globe. We are very thrilled to welcome Patrick to this position and look forward to his many contributions."

Before Patrick joined Global Software, Inc. he was with IBM Analytics, serving 9 years as a significant contributor in IBM's analytics unit. His responsibilities at IBM included managing 35 existing partners, developing new opportunities from initial inquiry to complex evaluations and negotiations, recruiting and consulting with emerging software companies looking to augment their solutions.

In his role with Global Software he will leverage his previous experiences in facilitating dynamic and strategic partnerships that will bring value to the ERPs' end user. "This a tremendous opportunity to be a part of a software company with such a rich history and stellar reputation as the market leader in the Excel Automation and reporting space for well over a decade," said Patrick Corcoran, Enterprise Alliance Manager at Global Software, Inc. "The Spreadsheet Server platform provides the ultimate in value and scalability for an ERP company looking to enhance their ERP experience via the Microsoft Excel application for their valued customers. I am truly honored to be part of this savvy and accomplished team at Global Software, Inc."
